

National Agricultural Law Center

Harrison Pittman, director
479-575-7640
nataglaw@uark.edu

National Agricultural Law Center Website (<https://nationalaglawcenter.org/>)

The National Agricultural Law Center serves as the nation's leading source of agricultural and food law research and information and is a unit of the University of Arkansas System Division of Agriculture. Created in 1987, the center fulfills its mission by conducting and sponsoring objective and authoritative agricultural and food law research and by providing bibliographic and other resources on agricultural and food law.

The center works closely with a diverse range of public and private sector stakeholders throughout Arkansas and the nation. The center is the only institution of its kind in the United States and has received national recognition. Publications and research assistance are available in print and through the website.